DICTATION TEST

(See pages 75 and 91)

1. Design is definitely my favourite lesson because it's always interesting and our teacher makes us laugh.
2. Although Jan is the cleverest at maths, he occasionally finds it difficult to listen carefully.
3. Half an hour should be enough time to describe the scene but remember to use paragraphs for each separate idea.
4. I doubt that it's worth having a discussion about this awful work of fiction, which is far-fetched and on the edge of ridiculous.
5. Sue eventually gave a lovely explanation which first helped us to learn about the Earth's motion and then enabled us to write about its relationship to the planets clearly.
