

Book 5 End of book test

1 Write a homophone of course.

2 Write three words, each with the prefix re.

3 Rewrite the word busniess correctly.

4 Write two words that have a silent letter n.

5 Write a mnemonic for the word enormous.

6 Underline the preposition.

Aimee slipped under the broken fence.

7 Write a sentence which has at least two adjectives, two adverbs and two pronouns.

8 Write an active sentence.

3

2

3

9 Write the sentence below in standard English.

Watcha, we're off down the shops.

10 Rewrite the sentence below, changing it from plural to singular.

The mice ate through the ropes that held the boats.

2

11 Write a definition of the word prudent.

12 Write a synonym and antonym for the word often.

synonym = _____ antonym = _____

13 Write two onomatopoeic words associated with fire.

3

14 Write a metaphor about snow.

15 Add a diminutive to complete the sentence.

The _____ rolled in the straw.

2

16 Write the following using indirect speech.

"Is Harry coming outside?" asked Manjit.

1

17 Add the missing apostrophe.

The dogs paws were filthy after its walk.

1

18 Rewrite this passage correctly.

sandra who was painting the bedroom screamed get the dog out as its tail dipped into her paint pot

1

19 Write a statement including the following words.

garden

rain

always

1

20 Write a sentence that correctly uses a semicolon.

1

20
TOTAL

Answers

- 1 coarse
- 2 e.g. rewind, return, retold
- 3 business
- 4 e.g. column, hymn
- 5 e.g. enormous – has a mouse at the end, with the letter e at the beginning!
- 6 Aimee slipped under the broken fence.
- 7 [a sentence with two adjectives, two adverbs and two pronouns]
- 8 [an active sentence]
- 9 e.g. Hello, we are going to the shops.
- 10 The mouse ate through the rope that held the boat.
- 11 e.g. showing carefulness and foresight
- 12 e.g. synonym = frequently antonym = rarely
- 13 e.g. crackle, spit
- 14 [a metaphor about snow]
- 15 e.g. piglet
- 16 e.g. Manjit asked whether Harry was going outside.
- 17 The dog's paws were filthy after its walk.
- 18 Sandra, who was painting the bedroom, screamed "Get the dog out!" as its tail dipped into her paint pot.
- 19 [a statement including the words: garden, rain, always]
- 20 [a sentence using a semicolon]